

Hawaii State Ethics Commission

State of Hawaii

Resolution

Whereas, Article XIV of the Hawaii State Constitution affirms the belief of the people of Hawaii that public officers and employees must exhibit the highest standards of ethical conduct; and

Whereas, the Hawaii State Ethics Commission proudly recognizes individuals who make significant contributions to promote ethics in government; and

Whereas, Ronald R. Yoshida has demonstrated his personal commitment to public service and has made significant contributions to promote the highest ethical standards in government while serving as a member of the Hawaii State Ethics Commission from December 17, 1998 to June 30, 2005, having served as Vice Chairperson from 1999 to 2002, and Chairperson from 2002 to 2004; now, therefore,

Be It Resolved that the Hawaii State Ethics Commission hereby commends and congratulates Ronald R. Yoshida for his dedicated public service to the State of Hawaii and for his outstanding contributions to ethics in government; and

Be It Further Resolved that the Hawaii State Ethics Commission hereby extends to Ronald R. Yoshida its warmest Aloha, appreciation, and best wishes.

Dated: Honolulu, Hawaii, September 7, 2005.
